- Incomplete forms and/or unpaid application fees, the application will not be processed.

Communication:

- All selected artists will be invited to send to the CBF,
2 photos (no selfie). All photos of the candidate must be professional images and, if possible, credited by the photographer. The photographer's authorization is essential and the candidate's responsibility.
By submitting your photos, you agree that the images may be used for festival promotional purposes.
- There will be 2 professional photographers during the two evenings. All selected artists will have access to these photos.
- The correspondence will be by email and/or through a private whatsapp group. The whatsapp group is for general information purposes only.

We strongly recommend that you join this group to avoid any lack of information.

For personal questions or concerns, please contact us at cabarielburlesquefestival@gmail.com

- All selected artists will be invited to this group at a later date.
- All selected artists are required to read any correspondence related to the festival.
- All correspondence between the artist and CBF, including the agreement, is confidential and must not be discussed with a third party before, during or after the festival

OTHER CONDITIONS:

- The CBF will not cover your trip to Paris or any other expenses.
- All selected artists will be required to accept the terms of an artist contract to confirm their place. This message will be sent by email once the selection is made. If you do not confirm the agreement sent by e-mail on the date indicated, the artist will lose his place at the festival.
- Once signed, artists are bound by the agreement and any violation, including serious unprofessional conduct during the festival, may result in their removal and loss of their place.

-We ask all selected artists to promote their appearance on their social networks, at least 2 weeks before the Cabariel Burlesque Festival.

-The CBF is not responsible for injuries sustained during performances during the festival. All artists must have their own accident insurance. The FBC will do its best to ensure the safety of the site and will be covered in case of civil liability.

-All artists are responsible for their accessories and injuries suffered as a result of their use.

The Cabariel Burlesque Festival reserves the right to modify the terms and conditions with reasonable notice to the persons concerned.
